Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The story line of this book, is to bring about the picture in our mind of the river of life. Very early in life, difficulties face us that take great courage and determination, in order that we may succeed in our life, and that the final outcome can be successful. We have to learn early on, to listen and remember the words of those that are wise, and have gone through the storms of life, and try so hard to pass on the lessons of getting through this life, with the least amount of difficulties. We learn to whisper to ourselves, over and over again, to remind and remember these things as we face the tasks that we will surely encounter on our journey. Also very early on, we often suffer the lose of things that are dear to us, things and people that we are just sure that we cannot do without, and we fall off of the cliffs that we walk too close to, and learn to grab hold of anything that can save us, careful to remember the stories that have been told to us by them that are old, and seasoned in their journey. We have to ultimately find the source of all our strength, clinging to those that seemingly come into our lives, often without any effort from us, we just stumble into them, and find that for some reason, they were placed in our way to save us. Finally in our seeking we come to understand what the plan is, and that truly there is a God, and we see what He has for us to accomplish while we are here in...
