*A whole new eBook with a brand new point of view. It is definitely simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the publication. I am just pleased to explain how this is the greatest ebook i have read during my very own daily life and could be the best ebook for possibly.

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 166 pages. LC Number: KF27 . B5368 2005f OCLC Number: (OCOlc)73491469 Subject: Financial services industry -- Law and legislation -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 9 ing, securities, and all other financial services in areas such as financial information and advisory services. With respect to commercial presence, we are including the right to establish new or to acquire existing companies in the form of wholly-owned subsidiaries, joint ventures, or branches. For both commercial presence and cross-border, we are seeking the removal of the discriminatory application of laws and regulations, and the removal of limitations such as monopolies, numerical quotas, and economic needs tests. And, finally, we are seeking transparency in the development and application of laws and regulations. To amplify these bilateral efforts, we are working with a group of about 13 countries of varying levels of development, including the European Union, Canada, Japan, and Switzerland, who share our interest in financial services liberalization, and we have developed a set of general benchmarks for financial services liberalization through what is being termed in Geneva as a plurilateral approach. USTR and Treasury are working hand-in-hand along with other U. S. agencies to get financial service negotiators from key countries around the world more involved in the negotiations, through bilateral requests as well as possible plurilateral approaches. As my Treasury colleague has explained in his oral statement and also in his written statement, Treasury is also reaching out to finance ministers to highlight the DOHA services negotiations, including financial services. Now, while we have secured some improvements in financial services in the offers submitted to date, there is considerable work ahead to bring the quality of those offers closer to our benchmarks. Why haven't we made more progress to...
