Excerpt: . . . reference to the evidence in the case, were properly refused. We are satisfied that the verdict is according to the pleadings, and is not contrary to the evidence, and that the judgment is authorized and supported by the verdict. The plaintiffs sought to recover the amount of a note for one thousand dollars, with interest at ten per cent. from November 4th, 1867, with a foreclosure of the mortgage executed to secure the payment of the same. The jury found for plaintiffs, one thousand four hundred and seventy-three dollars and fifty cents, and that it was secured by the mortgage as described by plaintiff; and the court rendered judgment for the amount found against the defendant, Joshua F. Trotti, with the usual decree, foreclosing the mortgage, order of sale, etc. Of the amounts paid by defendant, Trotti, to plaintiffs, amounting in all to nine...
