Excerpt from book: ? Joy ? Joy! And he did not understand why she in her turn kept calling, Martha ? Martha ? come quick ? come quick! He knew best that she suddenly stopped running, and turned and waited for him, and that as he fell forward she caught him in her arms and began to drag him toward a bright light. It was a most vivid hallucination. And when he woke in his bed, so warm and all, and Martha bending over him, the first thing he told her ? smiling sleepily ? was that he had mistaken her for Miss Jocelyn Grey. It was the realest sort of an hallucination, he said, she caught me as I was falling ? and of course she was you. She suddenly stopped running, and turned and waited for him. How do you feel, Deary ? We ? I had a devil of a time with ye. But the Poor Boy s mind was still upon the vision of Miss Grey. I saw her, he said, and there was a look in her eyes that told me she d never ? never believed I d done it. . And I was so glad, I tried to run to her for comfort, and all the time she was you. It was all so real ? so real. It was a lot realer than some things that really did happen to me yesterday ? yesterday morning, before I began to get snow-foolish. Twas...
