By Hilda Poppitt

Percy Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Always Believe, Hilda Poppitt, "Always Believe" is the second novel by Mrs Hilda Poppitt. The book depicts the adventures had by Lilly and her three younger sisters when they visit their Auntie house, a house which itself is special as is the street it sits in. "Always Believe" is a Christmas tale that depicts the unusual side of Father Christmas that no one normally thinks about. The girls find a magic mirror in the loft that leads them to a magically land, but not to the snowy Lapland scene they were so obviously expecting but a rather different Lapland, one that recycles milk and biscuits that are left out for Father Christmas, big singing machines that wrap all the presents for boys and girls and talking reindeer that get to personally meet every child from around the world just the once!.

Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
