Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from What Bird Is That?: A Pocket Museum of the Land Birds of the Eastern United States, Arranged According to Season As Curator of the Department of Birds of the American Museum of Natural History I have had exceptional facilities for the arrangement of collections designed to give students a comprehensive view of local bird-life without confusing them with unnecessary details. Among other aids to this end a collection of Birds Found within so Miles of New York has been placed in a special hall and so grouped that the visitor who wishes to identify some bird seen within these limits may do so with the least possible difficulty. In addition to the General Systematic Collection, containing specimens of the 3 so-odd species of birds which have been recorded from the New York City region, there is also a Seasonal Collection. This Seasonal Collection contains only the birds of the month. Its base is the Permanent Resident Birds, or those which, like the Crow, are with us throughout the year. To these, the migratory species are...
