He taught one year at Edinburg, two years at Atwater, and one year in his home district, since which time he has taught in the grammar department of the Edinburg high school, and will continue there another year. He also teaches music, both vocal and instrumental, making a specialty of harmony. Mr. Shilliday's second year of teaching at Atwater was interrupted by the sickness of a brother, whom he nursed. At another time his teaching was likewise interrupted to attend his mother, who was very ill. During the summer of 1908 he attended the Oberlin Conservatory. Mr. Shilliday married, August 12, 1908, Melvina Jentes, and they first kept house in the old historic building known as the Hugh Eldridge house, and later removed to the Methodist Episcopal parsonage, which is still their home. They are both well liked and esteemed...
