Minotaur/BOMC. 1 Cloth(s), 2012. hard. Book Condition: New. Agatha Raisin is back and as feisty as ever in her 23rd outing, following As the Pig Turns. She has fallen head over heels with George Marston, a local gardener who's become a lady magnet among the Cotswold village set, and Agatha shamelessly spares no expense to arrange a charity ball just to have a dance with him. But things go terribly wrong, and George's failure to appear at the ball has something to do with a sudden death and a poisonous snake. Agatha, determined to find the truth about what happened, discovers that George had quite a complicated love life. Could one of these Cotswold ladies have done the deed? Perceptively characterized by the St. Petersburg Times as a "glorious cross between Miss Marple, Auntie Mame, and Lucille Ball, with a tad of pit bull tossed in," Agatha Raisin has won legions of fans since her first foray into crime-solving in Agatha Raisin and the Quiche of Death. M.C. Beaton gives us the adventures of a cranky middle-aged woman who has a knack for stumbling across mysteries in the picturesque English village that she has made her home. 294.
