De Morgan. Observaiobt, January 8, 1852. Your letter of the 4th, which only reached me yesterday, was very satisfactory on the point of priority. I could only acknowledge its arrival, and even now can scarcely do more than thank you for the advice which it contains, and of which I shall not lose sight. It is clear that I must write some condensed summary of the contents of so diffuse a volume, or it will be thrown aside unread by the busy and advanced, even if it should not deter mere learners, although the liberality of the heads of this university will enable me to offer the book at a moderate price, not yet fixed, but to be low. You cannot think it flattery, if I say that its style was not designed for readers of your calibre, although I shall be very glad if you can find time and patience to read it notwithstanding. In fact you may observe that although alluding often to double algebra, I do not assume any knowledge of it, and indeed assume usually very little knowledge of mathematics, at least in the earlier and larger part of the volume, so far as hitherto printed, although I am getting just now a little deeper into ellipsoids, and shall give a touch of differentials, integrals, variations, c, in the eighth and closing lecture, which I have nearly reached. The first was put...
