Lulu.com, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When Mediocrity challenges Socrates that faith is truth i.e. a fact set apart and that even natural science is based on faith, he is arrested and questioned by Socrates. Offered his choice of punishment, Mediocrity suggests a moderate fine. On the premise of contemplation of sentence, the hearing is adjourned and Mediocrity is invited to dine at a sumptuous feast prepared by Socrates where he is encouraged to gorge himself on its many delicacies. After the feast it is abruptly announced to Mediocrity that he is immediately sentenced to drink the contents of a large chalice filled with a powerful mixture of laxative and muscle relaxant and then be confined to the agora at Athens for three days without bathroom privileges, completely naked except for a white sheet. (Based loosely and not so loosely on Plato's record of Meno's questioning of Socrates, but let's not call it plagiarism).
