A mastery of Caesar is the best possible foundation for Latin scholarship. But Caesar is too difficult to be read freely and enthusiastically without definite preparation. The road to Caesar should be as direct and easy as a Roman road; it must, however, be long enough to carry the traveller not merely within sight of the city, but to the golden milestone in its very centre. The rules of syntax are developed in a similar way. There is thus, in every moment of study, the joy of discovery, the scientific method, laboratory practice. Words, as truly as rocks and flowers, are products of...
