Then, with the assistance of a large corps of leading educators, he began gathering together new and valuable material, and after a long period of such preparation The Student s Cyclopaedia was entirely rewritten. New ideas were incorporated, the scope of the work was so broadened that it became more than a mere cyclopaedia, and a new work in three volumes was launched under the name of The Student s Reference Work. This gave such excellent satisfaction in supplying a real need in the home, that it has long been recognized as the standard work of its kind. In making the latest edition, The New Student s Reference Work, our aim has been, not only to maintain the high standard character of The Student s Reference Work and to keep abreast of the times, but to move ahead along the most approved lines of educational work by securing the services and suggestions of those advanced and progressive educators who represent the best thought in the educational world. We were indeed fortunate in having, as...
